HEALTH RULES - NEW for 2026

All animals will be inspected by a Show Committee person prior to entering the show grounds. Health papers are NOT required for Florida exhibitors where the animals have been in Florida prior to the show..

Goats coming into Florida must have an OCVI dated not more than 30 days prior. All imported dairy goats 6 months of age or older must originate from a certified/accredited herd (with appropriate documentation), or have verifiable, documented negative testing results recorded on the OCVI.

All animals must be free from clinical symptoms of caseous lymphadenitis. Animals showing clinical symptoms of this disease will not be allowed to enter the area of activity or to become associated with animals entered by other participants. With reference to CL, clinical symptoms is the term used to define enlargements of the lymph nodes, whether draining or not. Evidence of incised lymph nodes will be interpreted as prima facia evidence of CL in the animal under scrutiny.

All animals must be free of all contagious diseases.

If goats are shaved at the show, all hair must be picked up and taken with you or put in trash!

OPEN SHOW ATTIRE

- Dress is casual. Closed toed shoes or boots are required. No short shorts or tank tops.
- Exhibitors not conforming to dress code will not be allowed to enter the ring. Show t-shirts purchased can be worn in the ring.

RELEASE

- Animals are released upon completion of their classes.
- CLEAN UP all trash around pens or vehicles before you leave.

NO DOGS ALLOWED AT SHOW - the only exception is a Service Animal.
Emotional Support animals do not qualify as a service animal.

Questions that will be asked are:

- * Is the dog a service animal required because of a disability?
- * What work or task has the dog been trained to perform?
